

Public Sale of Fine Blue Grass Farm Horses, Mules and Cows

At 1:30 o'clock, Tuesday, Oct. 29,

I will offer to the highest bidder my farm, containing 280 acres by survey, located on waters of Hanging Fork, just 1 mile north of McKinney, 4 miles east of Hustonville, on O. & C. railroad, 1 mile from depot. This farm is considered one of the best farms in Lincoln county. Grows wheat, corn, oats, hemp and tobacco as much per acre as any farm in the county, dwelling house of 12 rooms, all out buildings necessary, two large stock barns, one 12 acre tobacco barn. All under good fence and well watered. One of the best springs in the county. Lots of never failing water.

Dwelling house nicely arranged for two families. At the same time I will sell The Warfield, one of the finest trotting stallions in Kentucky. His colts can be seen at the sale to show for themselves.

Will also sell all my fine brood mares, geldings, Jennets, cattle, cows and calves, farming implements, crop, etc.

All small grain has been sown: 70 acres wheat up nicely, timothy sown; can give possession January 1, 1913.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

For Rent.—My farm of 250 acres 35 acres for corn, 36 for wheat or oats, 50 acres in meadow, balance in grass. Also has good dwelling house, barn and all out-buildings. For further information address Mrs. Geo. Logan, Stanford, Ky., West Main street. 74tf

For Sale.—Fine mule jack. This jack is in a class by himself as a mule jack. You will have to see this jack and his colts to appreciate him. He must be sold by Nov. 15 as I will leave for the south after that time. Turner's colts have sold this season at $130, in 1910 several sold at the Brodhead fair for $125. B. B. King Moreland, Ky. 83-5.

For Rent.—The farm of 153 acres, belonging to the Martin heirs located about two and a half miles from Crab Orchard on Lancaster pike, right on the river; good house on premises, tobacco barn and other buildings; cash rent. For further information apply to Leonard Martin, Crab Orchard. 86-3p

John C. Pepples sold to Henry Hester a work mule for $185.

T. D. Newland sold to Albert Von Gruenigan a Jersey cow for $40.

W. W. Walter, of this city, sold to W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, a buggy horse for $150.

J. Nevin Carter, of Stanford, sold to Stigall, of Boyle, a gray buggy mare for $150.

W. P. Grimes delivered Saturday to Dr. S. O. Eads, of Boyle county, 10 yearling feeders at 5 1-2 cents. They averaged 750 pounds.

A. T. Nunneley, the local stock yards man, bought of J. L. Beazley, a mile out on the Danville pike, a bunch of calves at $11 a head.

Edg. Holderman bought from J. C. McClary a nice buggy and family horse for $80. He will use him when he moves out to the nice little farm he recently bought at Hayden's Switch.

W. H. Shanks, of this city, who is conducting a large live stock business in Columbus, Ga., bought of J. H. Woods a pair of mares for $300; of B. D. Holtzclaw a mare for $110; and a gelding for $150; of James Rogers a gelding for $150. Mr. Shanks will ship them at once to his yards at Columbus.

J. D. Eads, a mile out of the Danville pike, sold to B. D. Holtzclaw, the Walnut Flat stock man, a bunch of 40 170-pound hogs at $7.10. In the consignment was one from Miss Berta Eads that weighed 340 pounds and for which she received 8 cents a pound.

Bean & Lancaster representatives of a large livestock firm of Bate, Ill., were in Lincoln last week, and made the following purchases of stock traders and farmers: of Fred Baumann two cows for $92.50; of E. P. Woods a cow and two heifers for $85; of R. C. Arnold a heifer for $21; of Wm. Beck three cows, for $140; of J. B. Foster two cows for $110; of George Lunsford a cow at $35; of Ollie Murphy a cow and a heifer for $75; of Fred Von Gruenigan two cows for $110; of A. Von Gruenigan five cows for $200; of G. C. Givens one cow and two heifers for $102.50; of J. L. Beazley three cows for $157.50; of John Strieger one cow for $45. The Illinois firm say there is a good demand for such market stuff as they found here and it is their intention to return every fall and buy up a car load or two.

Now, if Bro. Palmer has fallen from grace as he intimated to me, I hope and trust it is not as far as is reported of two of his predecessors, namely, G. W. Young and J. W. West, and a number in other states whose names are mentioned in the National Issue of St. Louis. But I certainly think he is a great way from grace, so long as he claims to be a Christian and opposed to the liquor traffic and then casts a ballot so much like Frank Fehr's, John Whallen's and Tom Taggart's that

MORE ABOUT THE ANTI SALOON LEAGUE

Bro. N. A. Palmer, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, in a lengthy article to the American Issue, claims I am incorrect in several statements about the A. S. League. He says "There was paid on the 1911 subscriptions and in cash collection, for the churches of Lincoln county $136.38." I am willing to admit that. But is it too late for the other pledges to be paid?

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp when speaking for local option in Lincoln county, told me that from the best information she could get, the churches of Lincoln were giving about $200. I showed my manuscript to Elder D. M. Walker, of Stanford, who is a member of the temperance committee, and a co-worker with the A. S. L. After reading the paper, he volunteered the remark that the Lincoln county churches were giving about $300 to the A. S. L. I said to him "Are you sure of that?" He said he was. I then in his presence changed the figures. Bro. P. cites us to the 1911 subscriptions. Why did he not mention the 1912 contributions? In 1911 the temperance people were asleep; in 1912 they were aroused over the local option fight and ready to give. He says the state of Kentucky pays slightly more than 40 per cent of the $24,000 as estimated by me. Now slightly more than 40 per cent of $24,000 is $10,000. That sum is sufficient to keep several men in elegance at Frankfort during the sitting of the legislature. If any one desires to know about Rev. Margett's "blood sucking," money-getting proclivities, ask W. D. Edmonson, of Crab Orchard, Ky. Elder W. G. Montgomery, of Moreland, Ky., some months ago told me that he had sent part of his pledge to Bro. Palmer with a request that a financial statement of the A. S. L. be sent him. After waiting quite a while, he sent a more urgent request. On Oct. 19th he told me no statement had been received. Bro. Montgomery is pastor of the Christian church at Moreland and claims he has a right to know what becomes of his money.

The 6th day of last March while standing near a window in the Danville, Ky., passenger depot, a well dressed gentleman approached me and said "Do you live here?" I replied "About ten miles south." He said "What is your occupation?" I replied "A clothier farmer." He said "That was once my occupation but perhaps I have fallen from grace. I am the State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. My name is Palmer." We at once began to discuss the liquor question. Soon after we began to talk, I said "I do not wish to take any advantage of you, but I am a dyed-in-the-wool Prohibitionist and opposed to the Anti-Saloon League." In our talk I asked how it was that in 1908 Ohio and Indiana, the two leading Anti-Saloon League states in the union elected a liquor license Republican, President Taft and Democratic whisky governors, Harmon and Marshall? He has my consent to publish his answer. And also my consent to publish that sweet Christian spirited document that he wrote about me, (a poor, insignificant Prohibition crank), and brought to Stanford and tried to get the Lincoln county temperance committee to sign, but failed.

Now, if Bro. Palmer has fallen from grace as he intimated to me, I hope and trust it is not as far as is reported of two of his predecessors, namely, G. W. Young and J. W. West, and a number in other states whose names are mentioned in the National Issue of St. Louis. But I certainly think he is a great way from grace, so long as he claims to be a Christian and opposed to the liquor traffic and then casts a ballot so much like Frank Fehr's, John Whallen's and Tom Taggart's that the angels cannot tell one from the other. It is no wonder to me that T. M. Gilmore, of the Model License League, calls "the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League hypocrites."

The Christ whom I claim to love and honor said "That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give an account thereof in the day of judgment." Matthew 12-36. Then what about the ballots we cast? In the great judgment day I hope He will not look me in the face with that expression of love and pity which He alone can bestow, and say "In yonder world I gave my life for you, but you did not give up your rum-soaked party for me. You voted with the emissaries of evil to perpetuate the Kingdom of Satan and their lot is your portion." I hope to have a better record than that. And may the Lord help us all to live for His honor and glory and the uplift of humanity.

A. W. CARPENTER.

A Severe Sickness Leaves
The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly
